IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Glenrose Rehabilitation Hospital Foundation Names Miranda Jordan-Smith President and Chief Executive Officer

The Glenrose Rehabilitation Hospital Foundation announced today its Board of Trustees has appointed Miranda Jordan-Smith as President and Chief Executive Officer, effective October 15, 2018.

“We are fortunate to have someone of Miranda Jordan-Smith’s caliber and experience secured to lead and develop the Foundation,” said Rick Vogel, Chair of the Board of Trustees. “We are excited to have renewed leadership to successfully implement our new strategic plan and create new opportunities for the Foundation. We have been engaged with Ms. Jordan-Smith since early April when we initially posted the position and were impressed with her wealth of experience in communications, business, and philanthropy. We are thrilled she has joined our organization.”

Jordan-Smith said, “I am honoured and excited to lead the Foundation and champion our mission that transforms the lives of 80,000 people annually in a world-class hospital that provides the most advanced and innovative quality care.”

The Board of Trustees believes Jordan-Smith possesses the attributes the Foundation needs to drive their mandate forward. Jordan-Smith comes with two decades of leadership experience in private, public, and non-profit sectors, as well as, credentials in the humanities, public relations, and business. A philanthropist herself, she will be focused on engaging stakeholders to inspire good will and support in the Edmonton community and beyond.
